

A Pair of Wings

An Unforgettable Journey into the Romance of the WWI Era

She didn't want to love him...

Colleen Vaughn has experienced the effects of war firsthand as a US Army nurse. When she's told her fiancé's been killed in action, she vows never to fall in love again. Until she meets a pair of haunting blue eyes and dimples. Only problem is – he's another pilot who's flying into danger.

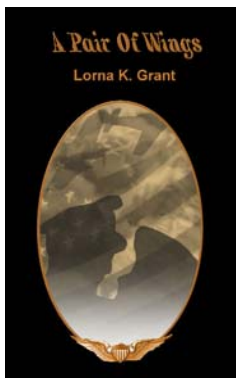

He wouldn't let her walk away...

As a P-51 pilot, Captain Daniel Ryan has only one mission: protect the bombers and get back alive. The last thing he needs is to fall in love. Soon he wonders just who is more dangerous – the enemy firing back at him or the woman who fights the love they share.

The war brought them together...

Would it also tear them apart?

Southern California Romance Author Will Break Your Heart Then Heal It Again With Latest Release

Lorna K. Grant's debut release, A Pair of Wings, a heartfelt look at romance in World War II, will take you on an unforgettable journey. When asked why she chose the years of WWII as a setting for her novels, Ms. Grant says, "What better characters for a romance than those from the Greatest Generation and in a setting considered the Last Great Romantic Era?" Ms. Grant said she felt an overwhelming compassion to give these inspiring heroes and heroines a well deserved place in the romance genre. After two years of false starts, blank pages and hours of research, Ms. Grant's debut novel, A Pair of Wings, is the resulting labor of love.

"...a wonderfully moving story about the power of love..."

Biography

At an early age, Ms. Grant discovered the quintessential heroes and heroines of those old black and white movies, and nothing has been the same since. As she got older, she discovered two new loves – history and the romance novel. Four years ago, she aspired to tell her own stories and set out to become published.

Ms. Grant's short story, "The 'Muse'-ings of an Author's Cat", appeared in the anthology Crumbs in the Keyboard, released April 2002 from Echelon Press, benefiting the Center for Women and Families, located in Louisville, KY.

Inspired, Ms. Grant decided to help raise funds for the America's 20th Century Veterans' Memorial in North Platte, NE with Let Us Not Forget, published November 2002 from iUniverse. Fifty-seven veterans and writers gave a piece of themselves for this tribute, including two former US Senators and veterans: Bob Dole, who wrote the foreword and Bob Kerry, who contributed the Introduction.
